

WILL INSPECT GUARDS TONIGHT

Captain Morris Believes His Men Will Make Good Showing Before Inspecting Officer.

The Dothan Guards, Company F, First Infantry, Alabama National Guard, some 60 odd strong, will assemble in the Armory tonight at 7:30 for the purpose of taking the annual inspection required for the militia of Alabama. Captain C. J. Morris and friends of the Guards hope that the company will maintain its usually good deportment.

Guardsmen are expected to have their uniforms and paraphernalia clean and in the best of condition, in order to make a good impression with the inspecting officers. These officers not only drill and question the men, but also inspect carefully all the state's property.

The officers who will review the militiamen in the Armory are Capt. William R. Serrews, inspecting officer of the United States Army, Major T. C. Locke, assistant inspecting officer, Lieutenant Colonel W. F. Madden, First Infantry.

Capt. Morris says he expects to have 60 members of the Dothan Guards on hand for the inspection, and he believes that the men will conduct themselves in a way to receive the approval of the inspecting officers.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

ANTI-WAR RIOTS OCCUR IN AUSTRIA

Last Mobilization Order So Draconic the People Revolt. Crowds Shout 'Down With War,' and 'Down With Germany.'

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 28.—The Austro-Hungarian government's order for mobilization of the last line of reserves has brought about a serious uprising among southern Slavs, according to unconfirmed dispatches from Austrian sources. The clergy, the advisers say, headed the resistance which began Sunday at Laibach, 35 miles northeast of Trieste. After the sermon by a Slavonian priest the crowd was reported to have left the cathedral shouting "Down with the war!" "Down with the Germans!" The rioters attacked the gendarmes and after shots were fired charged the crowd. During the disturbance the prefect's palace was burned.

At Agron, capital of Croatia and Slavonia, students tore down the mobilization notices, and it was reported that a Hungarian official, a student and a child were killed in rioting. There was rioting also at Karlsfeld, in Croatia. At Susak, near Fiume, the armory of the Hungarian landwehr was said to have been plundered.

An enormous crowd, the advisers from Austrian sources also say, concentrated at Opuzen, then descended on Trieste, and joined the rioters there. All the houses on which mobilization notices were posted were destroyed, and in the fight which followed with marines two of the rioters were reported to have been killed.

Later dispatches say rioting continues, and that a general apprehension is felt.

Serious trouble is reported at so in Transylvania, where Governor Count Bethlen it is stated has ordered that all persons refusing to submit to the mobilization notices "shall be shot."

No Loop Hole For Escape

Vienna, Jan. 28.—The stringency of the latest Austro-Hungarian war levy has created consternation throughout the monarchy. The military authorities apparently are determined to leave no loop hole of escape from service.

The official summons embraces the whole force liable for land storm service from 19 to 36 years of age. Young men who in 1914 were for the third and last time exempted through physical disability and men reported 18 months ago must present themselves again.

The notification also calls for men born Hungarians and Austrians who were naturalized after they had reached their thirty-third year, although these men heretofore have been entirely exempt.

Pitit Burglaries Puzzle Officers

The store of S. S. Horseman just below the center of East Main street was burglarized last night. A small loss being estimated at $1,500. Another store, owned by Mr. Leason, about a mile east of the Horseman place, was also burglarized.

A negro from the country came to town today and reported that his smoke house had been broken open by an unidentified party or parties, and a quantity of meat stolen.

The smoke house of John Saxon, a well known Dothan merchant, was broken open recently and a quantity of meat stolen.

There are no clues in any of the cases, insofar as is known Sheriff May has obtained the use of two young untrained dogs, owned by Jesse Ethridge, with which the officers are having poor success. The dogs are young and untrained and but little could be expected of them. Besides that they are only about one fourth blood hound.

PANAMA CANAL CEREMONIES MAY BE POSTPONED

President Wilson Will Probably Go to San Francisco By Rail

Washington, Jan. 28.—Formal opening ceremonies at the Panama Canal probably will be postponed from March to July, and President Wilson will go to San Francisco by rail in March and to Panama later, when the naval reviews will take place.

Although no formal announcement of the change in plans has been made, it is said that the President has taken up the question with Secretary Daniels.

The President today told the North Carolina congressional delegation that he probably could not accept an invitation to speak at an anniversary of a monument to General Nathaniel Greene at Guilford Courthouse, N. C., July 4th, because he probably would be at Panama.

The report of Governor Goheen that it was could not guarantee passage of a yardstick at the opening and the set for the formal opening is understood to have been instrumental in bringing about the change.

GERMANS LOSE 800 MEN DURING STRUGGLE LAST. INO THIRTY MINUTES

Russian Officer Describes Destruction Wrought by His Command in Fight

Petrograd, Jan. 28.—In a stubborn fight about Sochaczew on the Bzura river, the Germans on Tuesday broke through into the Russian trenches from which they were repulsed only after bayonet charges. At Atlanta, two miles north of Sochaczew, in a battle lasting thirty minutes, the Germans lost 800 killed.

A Russian officer commanding a battery of machine guns gave this account of that fighting.

At dusk our battery was ordered to take a certain position to check the Germans. Within an hour trenches were dug and the battery masked. We lay all night waiting for the attack. Before us was a clear space of 2,000 yards to a hill on which there were trees.

With the coming of daylight we became impatient and began to fear that the Germans did not intend to attack. Suddenly at the edge of the field we noticed a detachment of cavalry. They rode toward our position and to a point within 600 yards of it, and then stopped, evidently suspecting that something was wrong.

We were in despair when the turned to move away, since we were without firing orders.

Suddenly the crackling of our machine guns, twenty yards to the left, gave signal for a general play of the battery. Part of the detachment was killed and the remainder of the cavalry fled. They were caught, however, by shrapnel from our artillery battery further back and scarcely one escaped.

Half an hour passed. From the direction of the village there then appeared the expected long lines of the German columns, not less than three regiments. Again we held our fire for a time, knowing what was expected of us.

"The Germans gathered on the left and began entrenching. They did not work long. With three volleys we swept the whole of the German left flank, and in thirty minutes the whole ground within reach of our guns was cleared. The Germans left 500 killed."

"Later the Germans tried to get around on our left, but there our Siberians had them on the run again. Meanwhile two German guns which were covering the movement were silenced by our artillery, thanks to which we lost scarcely a man."

FRENCH GET "BORE" WHEN SOME IS BORN

Paris, Jan. 28.—An announcement given out at the war office today says:

WILSON VETOES IMMIGRANT BILL

President Objects to the Literary Test.—An Attempt Will Be Made to Pass the Measure Over the Veto.

Washington, Jan. 28.—President Wilson vetoed the immigration bill today because of the literary test for admission of aliens. His message was referred to the house immigration committee, whose chairman, Representative Burnett, will move next Thursday that the measure be passed over his veto.

Much informal discussion among members of the house followed receipt of the veto, and there were many who believed the two-thirds majority required to repass the bill could not be procured. Immigration bills containing literacy tests were vetoed by President Cleveland and by President Taft, but both times failed of repassage.

In his veto message President Wilson told the house, which originated the bill that he had no pride of opinion on the question or was "foolish enough to profess to know the wisdom and ideals of America better than the body of her chosen representatives know them. He asked, however, whether the bill rested upon conscious and universal sentiment and desire of the American people, and pointed out that no political party ever had "avowed a policy of restriction in this fundamental matter, gone to the country on it and has been commissioned to control its legislation."

Senate leaders insist there would be no trouble in repassing the bill in the upper house. That was done in the Taft administration, but the lower house failed to muster a two-thirds majority.

HELPLESS STRANDED LOST BY CUTTER IS FINALLY RESCUED

New York, Jan. 28.—The Russian steamship Angelo Parodi, which was lost from view of the revenue cutter Itasca, in a fog and was believed to have gone down with her crew of 27, reached New York today in tow of the Greek steamer Oria.

The Angelo Parodi had drifted since January 15, when a supply of coal was exhausted. For four days the Itasca searched and tried to get a line to the ship. The Parodi's last reply was out in rough weather that it was in the "over" stage. High seas prevented Itasca from aiding either the ship or those aboard.

During Monday night the Angelo Parodi drifted away from the Itasca in thick weather. The cutter searched all day Tuesday and yesterday for the ship, not finding it, sent a message to Norfolk expressing belief that the Angelo Parodi had sunk about 20 miles off Henry with all on board. It was strengthened, however, that the cutter encountered steady seas of weather.

After the Angelo Parodi came reported from the Itasca, the cutter was ordered to search for the ship. The Angelo Parodi was found in the fog, and the Itasca was able to rescue the crew and passengers. The ship was damaged, but the crew was saved.

AFTER MANY MEDICINES FAILED
Mr. Singletary Says Vi-nol Ended His Suffering from an Awful Cough and Threatened Lung Trouble.
Sumter, S. C.—"I am an oculist and for several years I suffered with an awful cough and lung trouble, so that at times I was scarcely able to go about on account of my condition. I had tried almost every medicine recommended for such troubles, without help, and finally a friend advised me to try Vi-nol. I bought a bottle and my cough is not only gone but my general health is lots better."
—J. W. SINGLETARY, Sumter, S. C.

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements found in cod livers together with the blood-purifying and strength-giving properties of tonic oils, that makes Vi-nol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.
We ask everyone in this vicinity who is troubled with a chronic cough, cold or bronchitis to try a bottle of Vi-nol. It is so simple and so sure that you cannot afford to ignore it if it does not benefit you.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF
Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp—At Once
There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, just as you do any other kind of dirt, common household grime, or any other kind of dirt. (This is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; it is enough to loosen the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.
If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only causes the hair to fall out, but it makes it stringy, brittle, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

DEATH OF FRENCH AVIATOR IS DESCRIBED BY AN ARTILLERIST
Clever Dupe Used by Germans Also Told About in Recent Letter.

Berlin Jan. 28.—A German artilleryman writing from Bapine France tells of the death of a French aviator who was brought down by German gunners.
"Today I saw a French aviator brought down by our guns," he said. "The French flyers had been growing bolder and bolder, especially in reconnoitering, he had our front and so we concentrated a half battery of howitzers in a village about four miles to the rear in order to teach them a lesson. Things happened as we expected by 8 o'clock in the morning there came an aeroplane, along with the greatest as surprise in the world. The gun at the front were not permitted to fire, and after passing them the aviator thinking all danger past kept coming lower and lower reaching finally a level of only about 1,000 feet. Not suspecting that he would encounter German artillery so far to the rear, I came within easy shooting distance of our gunners in the village.
Suddenly two shots were heard, and two little white clouds were observed in the air not far from the aeroplane. The aviator remained virtually at the same spot, until he was almost enveloped by the next two clouds. One shot exploded just in front of him the other just behind him. Our men had gotten their range.

very quick. Then followed two more shots, one a little to the right the other just to the left. As seen through my field glasses the aeroplane seemed to waver, as if it had been damaged. It did not seem to alter its steering gear, for it could not get away from the spot.
"The next two shots fired at most simultaneous, with its fate. The first shot cut off a wing smoothly. The other was a square hit. The aviator was either killed or fell. I did not see such a beautiful shot in the whole war. The aviator who fired it had already distinguished himself on several occasions and he won the iron cross with his day's achievement. The fragment of this aeroplane was picked up after it had been a while in the air and sent to the front and sent to the front and sent to the front.
Yesterday the letter continued, I was present in an abundant position to resemble a much better than we saw of all the other shots and painted them to look like cannon muzzles. I am in position between the hands. Today the French peppered away at this supposed battery and fired 172 shots before their aviators could tell them that they had been duped.

FOOD EXCHANGE FOR ALABAMA
A Food Exchange in Birmingham for Alabama and adjoining states has been launched by the marketing committee of the Alabama Crop Development Commission. The formation of this committee is former Governor W. D. Jones. The plans for this exchange have been worked out by the committee and will be presented at the Alabama Products dinner in Birmingham Wednesday night February 14 when the diversification campaign will be launched.
The plan provides for an exchange with an experienced man in charge whose ability and integrity will be guaranteed by a strong Chamber of Commerce directorate. The exchange will be for the benefit of small and large farmers and will be a very important part of the South. A small membership fee will be charged each merchant in turn and a small commission charged on the produce handled. The aim will be to handle all farm produce—live stock, poultry, fruits, vegetables and grains—in order to get the best possible price for the farmer and to get the best possible price for the consumer. These will be sold for cash to the big buyers in the Central West, the North and the East, and to local produce buyers as well. The exchange, upon being established will work to form community organizations of farmers and not hands all over.

There's no corn or callus among the millions of feet in the world that GETS-IT will not remove. GETS-IT—there's no use up GETS-IT in the new way, the simple, common sense way. It does away with greasy ointments, salves, pads, cotton rings, harnesses, knives, scissors, razors, files and the lumping and the painful pinching of will at so many corn-patched people. All you do is put 2 drops of GETS-IT on the corn, it will be up and out. Nothing else in the world will GETS-IT. Millions are using it. There's no pain, no trouble, no changing shoes, because of corns.
GETS-IT is sold by drug stores everywhere. 25¢ a bottle, or sent direct by L. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Alabama and other parts of the South so as to enable the farmer to ship his produce at railroad rates. The farmers and merchants in these various local organizations will be given data for information as to the quality of produce and the methods of packing that are necessary to get the top notch prices.
The business men of Birmingham who are back of this move to establish the Exchange declare that such an institution will not only be worth thousands of dollars to the farmer and merchant all over the State and other Southern States, but that it will be for the benefit of the produce buyers as well for they can buy products of standard quality properly packed and shipped. The members of the committee realize that there are thousands of farmers in Alabama who will diversify their crops. They want those farmers to get the best market prices for their produce and to have cash for every shipment. At present a good many farmers have had difficulty in getting good prices for what they raise. The loss is uncollectible bills and in low prices has run into tens of thousands of dollars. A reliable exchange, constantly in touch with the buyers and with the producers, ably managed, and its reliability guaranteed, would do away with these losses and be worth several million dollars a year to the farmers and merchants who will have all kinds of produce to sell.
